Rehabilitation of the Offenders Act Statement

The work for which you are applying is exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974, because it involves substantial opportunity for access to children.

As of 29 May 2013 you are no longer required to disclose information about any ‘filtered’ offences. Please see the guidance below which sets out the Filtering rules for criminal record check certificates. You are not required to disclose on any part of this form any convictions or cautions that have been ‘filtered’. Guidance and criteria on the filtering of these cautions and convictions can also be found on the Disclosure and Barring Service website

Subject to the filtering rules, failure to declare a conviction that you must disclose, may require us to exclude you from our register or terminate an assignment if the offence is not declared but later comes to light.

Filtering rules for criminal record check certificates

For those 18 or over at the time of the offence:

An adult conviction will be removed from a DBS criminal record certificate if:

- 11 years have elapsed since the date of conviction; and
- it is the person’s only offence, and
- it did not result in a custodial sentence.

Even then, it will only be removed if it does not appear on the list of offences relevant to safeguarding. If a person has more than one offence, then details of all their convictions will always be included.

An adult caution will be removed after 6 years have elapsed since the date of the caution – and if it does not appear on the list of offences relevant to safeguarding.

For those under 18 at the time of the offence:

- The same rules apply as for adult convictions, except that the elapsed time period is 5.5 years
- The same rules apply as for adult cautions, except that the elapsed time period is 2 years.

As an exception to the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974, for certain roles and professions you are required to disclose all spent and unspent convictions. The guidance on the DBS website explains who is eligible for DBS checks but anyone doing such work must disclose spent and unspent convictions (subject to the filtering rules). If this is relevant to work that you are seeking please list all criminal convictions (spent and unspent) and their dates below, subject to the filtering rules.
